

Tomorrow, on GIVING TUESDAY, the Center for HOA Law salutes our generous donors, who support the Center’s work and make it possible for us to mount campaigns to protect homeowners. GIVING TUESDAY was started by the United Nations Foundation and the 92nd street “Y” in New York as an antidote to the consumerism of Black Friday and Cyber Monday (and now this year’s Thanksgiving Day DoorBusting.) “GIVING TUESDAY is a reminder to give back to our communities and to the nonprofits working on our behalf,” says Kathy Calvin, President of the UN Foundation. “The most meaningful gift we can give our children, loved ones, neighbors, and communities is a commitment to build a better world,” she believes.

This year, the White House Office of Social Policy and Civic Participation also issued a statement urging Americans across the country to celebrate GIVING TUESDAY by donating money and time to nonprofits working for the common good. CCHAL thanks the generous homeowners, law firms, and other nonprofits whose donations enable us to help homeowners. Donations to the Center pay for phone calls, trips to/from Sacramento, problem-solving with homeowners, technical assistance to attorneys representing homeowners, and keeping the website up-to-date. We are the only California nonprofit dedicated solely to protecting the legal rights of association homeowners.
